As you can see, this stunning contemporary villa is UNDER CONSTRUCTION and completion is due in 2019. The photos herein are merely an artists impression of how the completed property may look at the end. Located in the prestigious Los Flamingos Golf Resort, this amazing family home will be simply awesome when it is completed. Here you will discover all the usual high quality finishes and every imaginable top gadget for a home of the 21st century. A visit to the site is highly recommended where you can talk first hand with the designer of the property and the builders who will meet you on site. Changes can and may be made in the future and we will endeavour to do our best to keep the property updated during construction.

For those who are not familiar with the area, Los Flamingos Golf is situated between Marbella and Estepona in a unique natural environment surrounded by 3 golf courses with excellent views to the sea. The fabulous Hotel Villa Padierna built in a Tuscan style is also located in Los Flamingos and it provides every luxury you could wish for. Previous guests include Michelle Obama and Antonio Banderas. Book your trip to see this outstanding property now.
